PARCELS POST

1. A Parcel, within the prescribed limits of weight and size, can now be sent from any one part of the United Kingdom to any other part of it, whatever be the distance, for a moderate and uniform rate of charge.

2. There are upwards of 15,000 Post Offices at which such Parcels can be posted, so that convenient means of sending are within the reach of all,

3. Parcels will be delivered regularly at every place where there is a delivery of letters, and may therefore now be sent to many places where previously they could only be sent, if at all, irregularly and by uncertain methods.

4. All postage being paid in advance, the sender knows exactly what the service will cost, and also that the receiver of the Parcel will be put to no expense.

The following are the chief Regulations of the Parcels Post :—

1. The Rates of Postage are, for a Parcel :—

Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight,	3d.	Exceeding 3 lbs. and not exceeding 5 lbs., . . .	9d.
Exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 3 lbs., . . .	6d.	— " 5 " " " " " " " " " " " "	7 " ..1s.

No Parcel can be sent exceeding 7 lbs. in weight.

2. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are—Greatest length, 3 ft. 6 in.; greatest length and girth combined, 6 ft. For example—A Parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in length may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth. A shorter Parcel may be thicker; thus, if it measure no more than 3 ft. in length, it may measure as much as 3 ft. in girth—i.e., round its thickest part.

3. The most convenient mode of measuring will be by means of a tape 6 feet long, having the length of 3 ft. 6 in. marked thereon. Such a tape might conveniently be marked in one colour up to 3 ft. 6 in., and the remaining part in another colour.

3. The full postage must be paid in advance, by means of ordinary postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender.

4. Parcels must not be posted in a letter-box, but must be handed over the counter of a Post Office. If a Parcel be posted in a letter-box, it will be treated and charged as a letter (or as a book-packet if entitled to pass at the book-rate of postage).

5. The Postmaster-General is not liable for any loss arising from Parcels being lost or damaged in transmission through the post; but every precaution is taken to prevent loss or damage.

Prohibited Parcels.

6. Parcels bearing or containing writing or marks of an offensive or indecent character; or containing gunpowder, cartridges, lucifer matches, or other combustible material, live animals, offensive or filthy matter, or any substance likely to cause injury to other Parcels, or to the Officers of the Post Office, may not be sent through the post.

Parcels requiring Special Precautions.

7. Parcels containing ripe fruit or eggs, fish, meat, or other animal matter; or knives and other sharp instruments; can only be sent if so packed as to prevent all risk of injury to other Parcels. Liquids must be sent in bottles, cases, or cans securely stoppered, and so packed as to be secure from breakage.

N.B.—The public will greatly assist the work of the Post Office, and help towards the safe delivery of Parcels, by taking care that they are in all cases strongly and securely packed, especially those with fragile or perishable contents.

Collection of Parcels in Rural Districts.

Rural Postmen, whether on foot or mounted, are required to accept Parcels from the public for despatch wherever they now collect letters. The Postman on foot must not accept from any one person a greater weight of Parcels than 7 lbs. in the aggregate, unless he shall have received notice, on the previous day, from such person of his intention to send a greater weight. A mounted Rural Postman is not required to accept a greater weight in the aggregate than 21 lbs. from any one person, unless similar notice shall have been given to him.

BOOK POSTAGE.

Printed Books, Pamphlets, Magazines, Reviews, &c., whether British, Foreign, or Colonial, may be forwarded by post between places in the United Kingdom (made up in the same manner as newspapers), if prepaid in stamps, at the following rates:—

GLASGOW GRAIN AND GENERAL
GRINDING MILLS
 AND COFFEE ROASTING WORKS.

A FRENCH Scientific Gentleman, who has directed his attention to the subject of Coffee Roasting, says:—I have found that Coffee is better Roasted, and more of the aroma retained, when a double cylinder is used—the air between the interior and exterior cylinders acting as a non-conductor of heat. It is done more uniformly, while the essential oil on which the aroma depends is less liable to be dispersed than when exposed to the fierce heat of a fire in a single cylinder.

In the double rotary globular method of roasting, as practised at Messrs. MINTO'S Works, Græme Street, Glasgow, the above principle is acted upon, in as much as the globe (which has superseded the cylinder since the application of steam power to this branch) revolves in a medium of heated air, which experience has shown best prevents the dispersion of the essential oil aroma.

By one of those advances peculiar to the movements of the age, the Art of Shorthand has been revolutionised by the above new system. Mastered thoroughly in twelve hours' tuition, surpassing every other system in legibility and speed, affording reporting proficiency in as many months as other systems require years. Though but recently introduced, it has already its institutions in almost every leading City in the Kingdom, and numbers its enthusiastic writers by the thousand; while Schools and Educational Institutions are, on all sides, rapidly adopting it as the System of the Future. These facts are proved in the Descriptive Pamphlet of the System, containing a brief historical sketch of the system, a description of its chief features, examples of writing, and a marvellous array of testimonials, authenticated with Name and Address, including the results in Glasgow, Edinburgh, Dundee, &c., and the opinions of the Press, of Professional Teachers and Shorthand Writers. In common with all great movements, the system has met with violent opposition from rival interests, and been subjected to the greatest misrepresentation. To these attacks full replies can also be had.

Instruction may be given either Privately, or in Classes, or by Post.
